Reinventing River Cruises for more than 30 years

As family company, we recognize the importance of having space where people feel at home and can relax completely.

The AMADEUS family comprises a perfectly trained crew who work around the clock to make your trip an unforgettable experience. You can rely on our many years of personal experience in all areas. As acknowledged experts in river cruising we oversee all aspects of our hotel services ourselves, including the catering and on-board entertainment, as well as all matters nautical.

First-class service with a warm smile

Aboard every one of the elegant ships of the Amadeus fleet, hospitality is more than just a tradition. It is a passion - a passion you will experience in every detail, from beautifully-appointed surroundings and gourmet dining selections to the enthusiastic professionalism of those taking care of you. With a staff and crew trained to the highest standards of service, the ambience onboard is relaxed yet impeccably gracious, designed to make you feel right at home in the heart of Europe.

Culinary Delights

With loving attention to detail, the head chef on your AMADEUS vessel will create new and imaginative menus for you every single day. Drawing inspiration partly from the regions you travel through as well as the season, our chefs will produce fresh and authentic symphonies of flavour to tempt you away on a culinary voyage of discovery. Of course, you are always free to choose between your classic favourite dishes and sophisticated specialities, vegetarian alternatives and delicious gourmet treats.

The special promotion is valid for new bookings only, applies to regular brochure cruise prices and is not combinable with other current Lueftner Cruises promotions. 10% enhanced commission applies to cruise services only and is added on top of the regular agent commission for FIT bookings (according to booking agreement).
